Profile

Beverly McGrath is an Associate with Marks O'Neill, O'Brien, Doherty & Kelly. She is admitted to practice law in the States of New York and Connecticut, as well as in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York.

Beverly graduated cum laude from Manhattanville College in 1983 with a Bachelor's degree in Russian Studies and earned a Master's of International Affairs in 1986 from Columbia University's School of International and Public Affairs. She attended Pace University's School of Law on a Merit Scholarship, graduating in 2007. During law school, Beverly focused on trial advocacy and civil litigation. She also served as a student attorney for John Jay Legal Services, Inc., providing pro bono legal services for the Equal Justice America/Disabilities Rights practice. In 2015, Beverly completed the National Institute of Trial Advocacy's (NITA) intensive Building Trial Skills training program.

Prior to joining Marks O'Neill, Beverly worked as an attorney for an insurance defense firm where she litigated premises, labor law, motor vehicle, and property damage claims from inception to conclusion throughout the New York City metropolitan region. She also has experience representing plaintiffs in personal injury, real estate and contract litigation.

At Marks O'Neill, Beverly brings her extensive experience to the Casualty, Healthcare and Professional Liability practice groups.

Outside of work, Beverly enjoys traveling, hiking, concerts, and gardening. Most of all, she enjoys spending time with her husband, extended family, and two young-adult daughters.
