Profile

Lorraine S. Ricco is an Associate at Marks, O'Neill, O'Brien, Doherty & Kelly. She is admitted to practice law in New York, New Jersey, and Connecticut.

Lorraine graduated from Syracuse University in 2015, with a Bachelor of Science. She received her Master's degree in Psychology from St. John's University in 2017. Lorraine attended CUNY School of Law, graduating in 2020.

While receiving her Master's degree, Lorraine interned for the Department of Corrections on Riker's Island. While in law school, Lorraine interned for Mental Hygiene Legal Services, the Waterfront Commission of New York Harbor, and a boutique law firm. Lorraine was a Franklin Siegel Public Interest Fellow as well as a Catalyst Public Service Fellow.

After law school, Lorraine worked as an attorney advocating for students with traumatic brain injuries to receive appropriate services under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act.

At Marks O'Neill, Lorraine brings her experience to the Casualty, Healthcare, Professional Liability, Construction and Transportation practice groups.

Outside of work, Lorraine enjoys working out and listening to music.
