Profile

Thomas M. Pié is an Associate with Marks, O'Neill, O'Brien, Doherty & Kelly's Pittsburgh office. He is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania, West Virginia and the Northern and Southern Districts of West Virginia. He is also a member of the Allegheny County Bar Association, the West Virginia Bar Association, Young Catholic Professionals of Pittsburgh, and Christian Legal Aid.

Thomas graduated cum laude from Wheeling Jesuit University in 2013, with a Bachelor's degree in Political Science and a minor in Philosophy. He attended Duquesne University School of Law, graduating in 2016. During law school, Thomas earned the CALI Award in Trial Advocacy and Tax Exempt Organizations, along with the Law School Mission Award and the Susan H. Wilkie Award for Professional Responsibility and Ethics in the Practice of Law. Tom also gathered in-house experience at ServiceLink, a national mortgage servicer. There, he provided legal research and support on contract, compliance, risk, and corporate legal matters.

Since joining Marks O'Neill in 2016, Thomas has represented clients in product liability, transportation, toxic tort, dram shop, and personal injury. He focuses his practice in general defense, specifically premises liability and transportation, toxic tort, mass tort, and product liability.

Thomas enjoys fly fishing, traveling with his family, and playing hockey. Thomas and his family currently live in the North Hills of Pittsburgh.
