Profile

Jonathan N. Saltzman is an Associate with Marks, O'Neill, O'Brien, Doherty & Kelly's Maryland office. He is admitted to practice in Maryland, the District of Columbia and the United States District Court for the District of Maryland. He is also a member of the Maryland Bar Association.

Jonathan graduated from the University of Maryland in 2013, with a degree in Government and Politics. He attended the University of Maryland Francis King Carey School of Law, graduating in 2016. During law school, he was a Leadership Scholar. Jonathan was also an associate editor of the Maryland Law Review and a research assistant to Professor Barbara Bezdek.

During law school he interned for the Honorable Nancy M. Purpura of the Circuit Court of Maryland for Baltimore County and the Howard County Office of Law. He also served as a student attorney for the University of Maryland's Community Economic Development Clinic. From these opportunities, he gained hands-on experience in a wide variety of legal fields.

Since joining Marks O'Neill, Jonathan has represented clients in matters of general liability. He has extensive experience with premises liability, auto torts and professional liability.

He enjoys reading, improvisational comedy and team trivia.
