Profile

Michael V. Slivjak is an Associate with Marks, O'Neill, O'Brien, Doherty & Kelly's New Jersey office. He is admitted to practice in New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

Michael graduated summa cum laude from the University of Pennsylvania and cum laude from Temple University's Beasley School of Law. During law school, he was an editor of the Temple Law Review, where he co-founded the official supplement, Temple Law Review Online. He clerked for the Honorable Susan F. Maven during her term in the Appellate Division, as well as in the Atlantic County Family Division.

Since joining the firm 2016, Michael has primarily represented clients in defending construction defect and accident claims, as well as litigation involving casualty, premises liability, subrogation, and environmental contamination. In addition, Michael represents insurance carriers in matters of coverage and in defense of bad faith claims.
