Profile

Anthony Bruni is an Associate with Marks, O'Neill, O'Brien, Doherty & Kelly. He is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania and West Virginia. He is also a member of the Pennsylvania Bar Association and the Allegheny County Bar Association.

Anthony graduated from Robert Morris University in 2015, with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration in Accounting. He began his career in public accounting as an associate for a local Pittsburgh firm. He then attended Thomas M. Cooley School of Law, graduating cum laude in 2020. During law school, he was a finalist in the school's internal moot court competition. Further, Anthony also completed an internship at the Allegheny County Court of Common Pleas.

Upon graduation, Anthony served on the staff of The Honorable Michael F. Marmo of the Allegheny County Court of Common Pleas.

Prior to joining Marks O'Neill, Anthony has represented clients in the area of general liability. He focuses his practice on construction, professional liability, toxic torts, product liability, and transportation cases.

Outside of work, Anthony enjoys spending time with friends and family, playing golf, and attending Pittsburgh sporting events.
