Profile

Ana R. Ciobanescu is an Associate with Marks, O'Neill, O'Brien, Doherty & Kelly. She is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania.

Ana graduated from Drexel University, College of Arts and Sciences in 2015. After graduating, she was a Victim/Services Coordinator the District Attorney's Office of Philadelphia in the Victim and Witness Services Unit where she assisted victims of crime to navigate the criminal justice system. She later was a paralegal with the Insurance Fraud Unit tending to matters involving application and incident fraud as well as assisting in grand jury investigations. Ana graduated from Drexel University, Kline School of Law, in May 2022. During law school, Ana was an Executive Editor for Research and Production on Drexel Law Review and was on Drexel University's nationally ranked Trial Team. Ana was also a certified legal intern with the Philadelphia Legal Assistance, Family Law Unit, where she represented clients in hearings involving both child custody and protection from abuse matters.

Ana first joined Marks O'Neill as a law clerk. As an Associate, she focuses on matters involving professional liability, employment law, and casualty liability claims.

Ana lives in Philadelphia with her boyfriend and their cat, Lenuta. Outside of the office, Ana enjoys trying new foods and restaurants, hiking, reading and listening to podcasts.
