Profile

Jacob Jaeger is an Associate with Marks, O'Neill, O'Brien, Doherty & Kelly. He is admitted to practice in New Jersey.

Jacob graduated from Ithaca College in 2016, with a Bachelor of Music in Vocal Performance. He attended Drexel University's Thomas R. Kline School of Law, graduating in 2023. During law school, he served on the Drexel Law Review as a staff writer in his 2L year and lead research editor in his 3L year. Jacob interned at the Federal Community Defender for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania and as a judicial extern for the Honorable Paula A. Patrick in the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas, Civil Division.

Since joining Marks O'Neill, Jacob has focused his practice on casualty, healthcare, employment, and professional liability matters.

Outside of work, Jacob enjoys traveling to new places to ski and hike, exploring new restaurants in Philadelphia and elsewhere, and spending time with his family and friends playing board games. Prior to attending law school, Jacob was employed as a recruiter, competitive barista and coffee roaster, professional vocalist, and actor.
