Profile

Justin Walker-Crunkleton is an Associate with Marks, O'Neill, O'Brien, Doherty & Kelly. He is admitted to practice in the state of Maryland.

Justin graduated from Susquehanna University, with a Bachelor of Arts in Pre-law/Political Science. During his time outside of the classroom, he participated in the International Student Program, assisting international students with their integration onto the college campus. He also participated in the football program, mentored younger students, studied abroad in Cyprus and interned at North Penn Legal Services to assist in providing free legal aid to the surrounding community.

Upon graduation, he pursued a law degree at Widener University Delaware Law School, where he was a member of the FDA Club. During law school, Justin was also employed as a Law Clerk for a regional firm practicing creditors' rights and a part-time Law Clerk for a solo-practitioner. While pursuing both degrees, Justin explored various fields of law and gained a considerable amount of legal experience.

Prior to joining Marks O'Neill, Justin was employed as an Associate Attorney providing representation for injured parties.

At Marks O'Neill, Justin brings his experience to the Casualty, Healthcare, Professional Liability, Construction and Transportation practice groups.

Outside of the office, Justin enjoys traveling, exercise, sports and spending time with loved ones.
