

MARKS | O'NEILL

O'BRIEN · DOHERTY · KELLY

Profile

George B. Keahey is Of Counsel with Marks, O'Neill, O'Brien, Doherty and Kelly. He is admitted to practice in Maryland, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and District of Columbia.

George graduated Summa Cum Laude, First in Class, from West Chester University with a Bachelor's Degree in Political Science. He attended the Temple University Beasley School of Law, graduating cum laude and serving on the Moot Court Team.

Prior to joining Marks O'Neill, George worked for various insurance companies and litigation firms handling complex casualty and professional liability matters. Early in his career, he served as a trial attorney at the Defender Association of Philadelphia.

Since joining Marks O'Neill, George brings his experience to the Casualty, Healthcare, Professional Liability, Construction and Transportation practice groups. George also has experience with toxic exposure matters, including lead paint.

Outside of work, George enjoys boating and antique automobiles.

George Keahey

OF COUNSEL

Phone 410-385-5883

Email GKeahey@moodklaw.com

Education

- J.D., Temple University Beasley School of Law, cum laude
- B.S., West Chester University, summa cum laude

Bar Admissions

- Maryland
- Pennsylvania
- New Jersey
- U.S. District Court for the District of Maryland
- U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey
- U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania
- U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit

Practice Areas

- Casualty Group
- Healthcare & Catastrophic & Excess Loss
- Construction Accident/Construction Defect
- Professional Liability
- Transportation/Trucking
- Toxic Tort, Mass Tort, Environmental and Products Liability